CHURROS & MORE™
GET A CHUBBY TODAY!

The Spanish explorer Diego Velasquez came, saw and conquered Hispaniola (Cuba) in 1511 and with him, among many other things, he brought the Churro. In 1518 he sent the young Hernando Cortez with an army to explore Mexico, and he took the Churro with him, travelling north into what is now New Mexico and Arizona. From its very humble beginnings the Churro is now to be found all across the world and the best is found at
