

REVOLVER PARTY HARD

Avenged Sevenfold's M. Shadows

Emmure meet-and-greet at the Revolver tent

Jamey Jasta and Suicide Silence's Eddie Hermida jam on Hatebreed's "Last Breath"

ROCKSTAR ENERGY DRINK MAYHEM FESTIVAL[™] ACROSS THE U.S., JULY 5-AUGUST 10

The proud media sponsor of the Rockstar Energy Drink Mayhem Festival, Revolver was there on the whole tour along with Avenged Sevenfold, Korn, Asking Alexandria, Trivium, Cannibal Corpse, Body Count, Suicide Silence, and many more. At our big, yellow tent, we handed out the fest program, offered up an Earthquaker Pedal Board setup for fans to play, and sold Revolver cover posters, Arnar Clothing T-shirts, and Razor & Tie CDs and apparel, as well as hosting meet-and-greets with Emmure, Ill Niño, Islander, and Wretched.

STURGIS BUFFALO CHIP MOTORCYCLE AND MUSIC FESTIVAL STURGIS, SOUTH DAKOTA, AUGUST 1-9

Nearly 50 bands—including Mötley Crüe, Alice Cooper, The Cult, ZZ Top, The Pretty Reckless, Sevendust, and Pop Evil—came together for the most massive music festival in Buffalo Chip's 33-year history. The camping event's nine days also saw custom bike shows, daredevil stunt expos, and fan contests including the not-to-be-missed Homemade Bikini Contest and the Fake Orgasm Contest. Needless to say, a good time was had by all.

Mötley Crüe

The Pretty Reckless

Alice Cooper